

Singles format, general information

Rounds will be played over 2 Thursday's at the end of the season, with the Finals Night consisting of the last 8 played to a winner.

Dates assigned for the KO will be announced at the start of each season.

A multi table venue will be selected to host the competition.

Matches will consist of a best of 5 frames in the early rounds with more played on Finals Night.

On first Thursday, rounds 1 through 3 will be completed.

On the second Thursday (Finals Night), will consist of the Quarter Finals through to the Final.

Lag for break.

The Finals Night (last 8 players, played to a conclusion) will take place at the advertised date and venue.

The number of entrants will be capped to 64 on a first come first served.

A list of entrants will be updated on the website on a regular basis.

Registration is anytime to and from the advertised dates.

The prize money will be announced once the registration period closes.

The first 3 places (losing semi finalists play off) will be paid subject to the number of entries.

Entry fee is £5 payable to any League Committee member, bank transfer, or via the usual means.

Contact the League for the League bank account details.

Matches start at 8pm and players may be assigned a start time. Late arrivals may be subject to frame penalties.

The draw will be published on this site once the initial draw has been made.

Players will re-draw on Finals Night.

Competitors will be expected to view this page to gain information of the draw, this will be the only source of information.

Players would need to be available to play for the 2 Thursday's that the Singles KO is spread over. The Finals night will not be delayed. If you are not available to play on these 2 Thursdays you should be cautious of entering the competition.

As usual players will need to have played in 1/3 of the league match frames possible by the season's end. This should equate to 18 frames.

How to enter

Entry fee payable to any League Committee member, in cash, cheque or bank transfer, as soon as the registration window opens.

Contact Steve Reed 07958 654023 for the League bank account details if you require them.
